

HEALTH DATA AND ITS PRACTICES

Explorations in Popular, Professional, and Participatory Contexts

University of Siegen
US-S 001/002
Obergraben 25, 57072 Siegen

Thursday, 8th September

10:30

Welcome and Introduction

11:00

Keynote: Deborah Lupton (Sydney) via Zoom

Creative Methods for Understanding the More-than-Human Dimensions of Information about Human Bodies and Health

12:30 Lunch

14:00 - 15:30

Caring, Health, and Digital Technologies

Galia Assadi (Nürnberg): Trust in the Powers of Ethical Judgment. Reflections on the Ethical Value and Implications of Participatory Contexts

Christophe Kunze (Furtwangen): The Complexity of Cooperative Care and Health Data practices - Explorations of IT-supported Collaboration in (Tele-)care

Sebastian Merkel (Bochum): Using Smart Speaker for Health and Social Care by Older Users. An Explorative Study

15:30 - 16:00 Coffee Break

16:00 - 17:30

Appropriating and Implementing Health Data Practices

Anne Jordi Koppenburger (Aachen): Taking Shape – Examining Knowledge Infrastructures for Health. On the Formation of the Electronic Patient File in Germany

Enrico Maria Piras (Verona): Quantifying, Tracking, Analyzing. Disputed Bodies in Datafied Chronic Care Management

Benjamin Marent (Sussex): Digital Health: A Sociomaterial Framework

Friday, 09th September

09:00 - 10:00

Clinical Health Data Practices I

Susanne Brucksch (Tokyo): Health Data, Medical Devices and Development Practices Among Clinical Engineers in Japan

Stefanie Büchner, Justus Rahn (Hannover): "Palliative" Modes – Reconfigurations of Data Practices in Intensive Care

10:00 - 10:15 Break

10:15 - 11:15

Clinical Health Data Practices II

Kevin Wiggert (Berlin): Systems of AI-assisted Clinical Decision Support. On Attempts at Data-based "Calculation" of Disease States in Intensive Care Medicine

Torsten Risør (Tromsø): Trailblazing, Jamsession and the Root Metaphors of Data Use in Clinical Practice

11:15 - 11:45 Break

11:45 - 12:45

Health Data Infrastructures and Data Flows

Marine Al Dahdah (Paris) via Zoom: Digital Health for All. Constructing a Data-Driven Welfare State in the Global South

François van Schalkwyk (Stellenbosch): Hyperlocal Data Flows: A Synthesis of Findings from Three African Countries

12:45 - 13:00

Closing Discussion

What Makes Health Data Popular, Professional and Participatory and Why Does it Matter?

13:00 - 14:00

Lunch und Farewell